DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-27, 30, 33-36 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

- The primary reason for the allowance of claim 11 is the inclusion of the limitation of an ink jet print head comprising a platen having the hole opposes less than the entire portion of the dot formation element array with respect to the first direction. It is limitation found in each claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught, or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.
- The primary reason for the allowance of claim 12 is the inclusion of the limitation of an ink jet print head comprising the recording head performs an interlaced recording operation for actuating only a portion of the dot elements which are located at a position close to the end of all the dot formation elements when data are recorded on the end portion of the recording medium without leaving a margin. It is limitation found in each claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught, or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

- The primary reason for the allowance of claim 33 is the inclusion of the limitation of an ink jet print head comprising at least a portion of the surface directly opposes at least a portion of the dot formation element array with respect to the first direction. It is limitation found in each claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught, or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
